Dohn Lee Jones

May 4, 1936 – December 6, 2015

Dohn Lee Jones was born May 4th, 1936 in Sioux Falls, South Dakota to Flora and Robert Jones.

Dohn attended S.D. School for the Deaf and graduated in 1955. Dohn studied map making in college and received his degree at Gallaudet University in Washington, DC. During his time in college, Dohn became an amateur boxer.

There he met and married Doris Highsmith. They moved to Denver, Colorado where they had 2 children, Derald Robert and DeAnn Marie.

Dohn became a map maker (Cartographer) for the United States Geological Service (USGS).

In 1981, Dohn and his family moved to Rolla, Missouri where Dohn continued his career as a map maker for the federal government.

Dohn's interests and hobbies included jogging, physical fitness, watching classic films and he also enjoyed drawing and writing.

Dohn passed away from complications of a heart attack on December 6th, 2015.

Dohn is survived by his two children currently residing in Denver, Colorado and his two granddaughters, (daughters of DeAnn) Ariana Berlin Edie and Summer Madrid Munoz.

A memorial service for Dohn L. Jones held April 10, 2016 at the Null and Son Funeral Home in Rolla, MO.