Waldo Herman Becker

September 13, 1925 – October 5, 2000

Waldo H. Becker, 75, died Thursday, October 5, 2000, at Yankton Care Center in Yankton.

He was born September 13, 1925, in Avon. He attended the South Dakota School for the Deaf in Sioux Falls. He then attend school in the Avon area through the seventh grade.

He married Jean McNeeley on August 26, 1961, in Springfield. He was a lifelong farmer. The couple retired from farming, they moved to Avon, then to Yankton.

His survivors included his wife, Jean, his daughters: Norma Center of Superior, WI, and Nancy Cuka of Wagner; a son, Lester Becker of White Bluff, TN; and four grandchildren.

Services began at 10:30 AM Monday at St. John's Lutheran Church of Yankton. Burial was in Friedenburg Cemetery at Avon.

There was a prayer service at 7:00 PM Sunday at the church.

Preceding him in death were his wife, Eva and parents.

Iverson-Siecke Funeral Home of Vermillion was in charge of arrangments.

