

John Kuglitsch

April 18, 1911 – February 11, 1995

John Michael Kuglitsch, the son of Michael and Thresa (Drumml) Kuglitsch, was born April 18, 1911, at Joliet, Illinois. He attended the Wisconsin School for the Deaf in Delavan, Wisconsin. He continued his education at Gallaudet University in Washington D.C. for two years

On October 6, 1951, he was united in marriage to Marianna Harnden, at Delavan, Wisconsin. John was employed as a lino-type operator for print shops in Delavan and Madison, Wisconsin. In later years he worked part-time at St. Vincent-DePaul in Madison. Mrs. Kuglitsch preceded him in death on February 23, 1987

John was a member of the Wisconsin Association for the Deaf, the South Dakota Association for the Deaf, and Senior Citizens for the Deaf. He has been a resident of Sioux Falls since 1988, and had made his home with his two daughters. John was always remembered for his love for outdoor activities: fishing, hunting, and sports.

Grateful for having shared his life are his daughters, Patty Kuglitsch, Sioux Falls, South Dakota and Deb Kuglitsch, Bowie, Maryland; grandson, Zachary; granddaughter, Zarah; several nieces and nephews; and friend, Jodi Oates.

The funeral held at Miller Funeral Home in Sioux Falls, South Dakota. Father Joseph Ripp, officiated the service at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Salem, South Dakota. He was buried at Saint Andrews Cemetery, Delavan, Wisconsin.
