Norman Palmer Larson

October 6, 1904 – September 12, 1984

Norman P. Larson, Sr. died Monday, February 22, 1988 at the age of 83 at home.

Norman Larson, son of Ellen Monserud Larson and Pete F. Larson, was born October 6, 1904 in Jasper, MN and grew up there. He graduated from the Minnesota School for the Deaf at Faribault in 1924 and returned to Jasper to farm.

After his marriage to Bertha J. Myklebust in Jasper on May 12, 1932, the couple farmed in the Jasper area until retiring in 1969.

They wintered for 14 years in Apache Junction, Arizona, until his wife's death on September 12, 1984. He had resided In Sioux Falls since.

He was a member of East Side Lutheran Church, the National Fraternal Society of the Deaf, the Senior Citizens, Sundown Sertoma, South Dakota Association of the Deaf and the Sioux Falls Association of the Deaf.

Grateful for having shared his life were one son, Norman P. Larson, Jr., Sioux Falls; one daughter, Mrs. Joseph (Judy) Glammeier, Sioux Falls; 8 grandchildren; 3 great grandchildren; his sister, Charlotte Nelson, Jasper, MN; and a host of other relatives and friends.

In addition to his wife, he was preceded in death by his parents, two sisters, Susanne Larson and Sophia Dunteman; and one brother, Ted.

Burial services began at 10 AM Wednesday in the Jasper City Cemetery. Memorial services began at 1 PM Wednesday in East Side Lutheran Church in Sioux Falls.

Visitation began at noon in George Boom Funeral Home. Prayers would be said at 7:30 p.m. in the funeral home.

The family requested that expressions of sympathy take the form of donations to the Heartland Ephphatha Services.

Norman Sr., holding his son Norman Jr.

L to R: James Jones, Delmar Moore, Norman Larson Sr., Joseph Servold and Albert Krohn

