Faye A. (Knouse) Servold

August 30, 1903 – October 25, 1991

Faye A. Servold, 88, died Friday, October 25, 1991 in Covington Heights Nursing Home, Sioux Falls, SD.

Faye Knouse was born August 30, 1903 in Armour, SD to James D. and Sarah McGill Knouse. She was the second of four children. Her family owned and operated the hotel, restaurant and blacksmith shop in Armour, SD. In 1908, she moved with her family to Paola, WY where they homesteaded.

She attended the Colorado School for the Deaf in Colorado Springs, and later moved to Denver where she worked in a tailor shop.

Faye married Joseph Servold in Denver on August 26, 1934. After her marriage, she moved to Sioux Falls where she was employed as a part-time house cleaner for the Neil Grahams, Bishop and Mrs. Blair Roberts, Bishop Conrad Gessner and All Saints School. She also did considerable amount of seamstress work for people in the Sioux Falls community..

She was preceded in death by her husband, Joseph, in 1980; a daughter, Dorothy Jean in, 1937, 1 sister and 1 brother.

Grateful for having shared her life were her daughter, Mrs. Hal (Peggy) Teslow of Sioux Falls; 3 grandchildren, Patrick and Mikal Malcomb of Sioux Falls and Vickie Malcomb of Honolulu, HI; 1 great grandchild, Drew Lundstrom; and 1 sister, Elizabeth Mattox of Sioux Falls.

Funeral service began at 10:00 AM Monday in Calvary Episcopal Cathedral, with burial in Hills of Rest Memorial Park. Visitation began at noon in the Miller Funeral Home, with the family present from 6 to 7 PM Sunday in the funeral home.

