Alida Gertude Digerness Daniels

January 4, 1890 – February 19, 1944

Mrs. Grant E. Daniels, 52, resident of Sioux Falls for nearly 30 years, died Saturday, February 19th, at her home, 800 North Wayland Ave.

Rev. Arnold Lutz conduct rites in sign language at 2 p.m. Tuesday, February 22nd, at Banton Funeral chapel. George Brender was soloist, Mrs. Claire Larson, organist. Burial at Woodlawn cemetery.

Mrs. Alida Gertude Daniels was born January 4, 1890, at Tor, IA, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nels Digerness. She attended South Dakota School for the Deaf for some years. She was married October 12, 1915 to Grant E. Daniels, in Iowa just prior to coming here.

Pallbearers were Raymond Daugaard, Norman Larson Sr., Sam Wellington, Leo Bender, Joe Myklebust, and Martin Johnson.

Surviving re the widower; two brothers, Halmer and Knute Digerness, Portland, OR, and two sisters, Mrs. H. McKinney, Lehmon, OR, and Merene Adams, Silverton, OR.

