

Donna O'Connor Norris

October 14, 1934 – November 25, 2001

Donna Norris, 67, of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, passed away on November 25, 2001, at Sioux Valley Hospital following a lengthy illness.

Donna was born on October 14, 1934, in Sioux City, Iowa, to John and Vivian (McCue) O'Connor. She attended the Iowa School for the Deaf in Council Bluffs and worked as a laundress and seamstress for many years.

On November 8, 1958, Donna married Floyd Norris in Sioux City. They made their home in Sioux Falls, where they raised their family.

Donna maintained strong connections within the Deaf community through the South Dakota Association of the Deaf, Style Club for Ladies, and Deaf Senior Citizens Club. She was also a member of Siouxland Lutheran Church for the Deaf and Trinity Lutheran Church for the Deaf. She enjoyed making crafts and visiting with friends. Donna was fondly remembered for her ready smile and pleasant greetings, and her presence was deeply missed by those who knew her.

She is survived by her husband, Floyd Norris; two daughters, Kathleen (Douglas) Lerch of Madison, Wisconsin, and Deborah Anderson of San Antonio, Texas; a son, Richard (Lisa) Norris of Lennox, South Dakota; six grandchildren, Ryan Lerch, Brendon Lerch, Jeremy Anderson, Jamie Anderson, Shay Norris, and Kyja; and a great-granddaughter, Chloe Anderson.

Donna was preceded in death by her parents.

Funeral services were held on November 29, 2001, at Trinity Lutheran Church for the Deaf in Sioux Falls, with Pastor Matthew Nix officiating. Music included "Beautiful Savior" and "Amazing Grace." Pallbearers were Bob McCue, Jeremy Anderson, Jamie Anderson, Rick DeJong, Ron Ullom, and Everett Rudebusch. Burial followed at Hills of Rest Memorial Park in Sioux Falls. Arrangements were under the direction of Chapel Hill Funeral Home.
