Albert J. Krohn

May 22, 1900 – April 30, 1981

Albert J. Krohn, 80, longtime printing instructor and coach at SDSD, passed away on April 30, 1981 as a result of a heart attack. He was residing in Walnut Creek, CA.

He was born and raised in Nebraska, graduated from the Nebraska School for the Deaf and from Gallaudet College before becoming a teacher – coach at SDSD under Superintendent Harry Welty. He served the school from September 1923 until May 1946, when he joined the printing staff of the Argus Leader in Sioux Falls until 1957.

During his 23 years at SDSD, Mr. Krohn served under three superintendents and was instrumental in developing the printing facilities at SDSD. He was inducted into the National Fraternal Society of the Deaf Hall of Fame.

Graveside services held on Wednesday, May 6th at the Mount Vernon Memorial Park in Fair Oaks, CA. Mount Vernon Mortuary of Fair Oaks is in charge of the arrangements.

A scholarship to help students from South Dakota going to Gallaudet is being set up in Mr Krohn's name at the SDSD.

