John Elmer Hanson

September 22, 1895 – March 3, 1988

J. Elmer Hanson, 92, rural Vermillion, died Thursday, March 3, in the Hillcrest Nursing Home, Hawarden, Iowa.

Mr Hanson was born Sept. 22, 1895, in Clay County. He attended the South Dakota School for the Deaf. He farmed, lived in Garfield Township and did woodwork. He moved to Wakonda in 1972, and in 1974 entered the Hillcrest Nursing Home. He was a member of the Dalesburg Lutheran Church.

Survivors include a niece and nephews.

Services held Monday in the Dalesburg Lutheran Church, rural Vermillion. Burial at the church cemetery. Visitation in the Iverson-Siecke Funeral Home, Vermillion.

Note: John Elmer Hanson graduated along with Class of 1916 at SDSD.

Cow milkers of 1916
Front row L to R: Roy Sylliaasen, Charles Hull, Reuben Bergland, Bert Byran, and Elmer Hanson.
Back row L to R: Carl Hegdahl, Art Berg, Duncan Cameron, and Byron Stitt.

