James A. Nelson

June 4, 1935 – February 3, 1993

James A. Nelson, 57, of rural Sioux Falls, died Wednesday, February 3, 1993, at McKennan Hospital, (now Avera Hospital).

Mr. Nelson was born June 4, 1935, in Lincoln, NE. He attended the Nebraska School for the Deaf in Omaha, NE, and Printers Trade School in Charles City, IA. He lived in various states, working as a printer, prior to moving to Sioux Falls, SD. He retired in 1978.

He married Dena Halagen in November of 1991, in Coeur d' Alene, ID. She died in 1992.

He was a member of the Association of the Deaf in South Dakota and Nebraska.

Survivors included two sons: Jon C. and Robert C., Both of Sioux Falls, SD; one daughter, Barb Nelson of Sioux Falls, SD; two grandchildren; and two brothers: Richard of Lincoln, NE, and Robert of Anaheim, CA.

Private family memorial services were held prior to burial at Bonners Ferry, ID. Miller Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.