Judy (Larson) Glammeier

April 4, 1936 – October 30, 1999

Judy Glammeier, 63, 609 S. Williams Ave, died, October 30, 1999, at Avera –McKennan Hospital after a long illness requiring hospitalization for several months.

Judith Joan Larson was born April 4, 1936, at Jasper, Minnesota, where she grew up and graduated from high school. She then attended Nettleton College in Sioux Falls. She worked in Sioux Falls throughout her life at Manchester Biscuit, at one of the branch Lewis Drug stores, and finally at Pam Oil Company as a bookkeeper for many years until her retirement.

Judy was united in marriage with Joseph Lynn Glammeier on December 20, 1980, in Sioux Falls and was a member of East Side Lutheran Church.

She was an active member and officer of numerous organizations for the deaf, including: the South Dakota Association of the Deaf, the Deaf Senior Citizens Organization, the National Fraternal Society of the Deaf – Division 74, the Lady's Style Club, and Tri-State Self Help for Hard of Hearing, Inc. She was also involved in various bowling teams throughout the years. She was a strong advocate for deaf services and was very interested in preserving the historical aspects of Deafness in South Dakota. She was a writer for the Siouxland Courier.

Judy had many interests but she especially enjoyed the time spent with her family, especially her grandchildren.

Grateful for having shared her life were her husband, Joseph Glammeier, Sioux Falls, SD; one son, Tim Thibodeau and his wife, Robin, Sioux Falls; three daughters: June Ball and her husband, Randy, Sioux Falls, SD, Nancy Richmond and her husband, Scott, Canton, SD, and Carol Houck and her husband, Rick, Sioux Falls; nine grandchildren, Tori, Travis, Tasha, and Taylor Thibodeau, Alaina and Justin Winker, Matthew and Elizabeth Richmond, and Andrea Houck, one brother, Norman Larson, Jr. and his wife, Maedora, Sioux Falls; nieces and nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Funeral services began at I:00 PM, Tuesday, November 2, 1999 at the East Side Lutheran Church, with burial in Hills of Rest Memorial Park.
