

1920 SDSD Football Team

The identities of the players and coach remain unknown. The large “K” on the coach’s sweatshirt also remains a mystery. If you recognize anyone in this photograph or know what the “K” represented, we would be grateful to learn more about this 1920 team.

Ready for the Snap

Three SDSD players demonstrate their starting positions. The recognizable school building in the background helps confirm the photograph

Football Practice, 1920

The team lines up for a play during practice. The photograph provides a rare glimpse of how SDSD players practiced and lined up on the field more than a

WHAT WE KNOW:

Records found so far document one game from the 1920 season: SDSD played Sioux Falls Cathedral and lost, 12-0.