Marvin J. Marshall

June 10, 1920 – February 15, 2004

Marvin J. Marshall, 83, of Carmel, Ind., passed away peacefully Sunday, Feb. 15, with his family at his side. He was born June 10, 1920.

Marvin graduated from Gallaudet College in 1947, which is where he met his wife Teresa Millette, a 1945 graduate of the South Dakota School for the Deaf. They were married in Sioux Falls on June 3, 1950. Marvin was a teacher and educator at heart, an athlete and a world traveler. Marvin had a 39-year teaching career at the South Dakota (1947–1951), Minnesota (1951–69), and Indiana (1969–86) schools for the deaf. He received recognition for contributions as an energetic and dedicated leader in the deaf community.

Marvin was diagnosed as having ALS (Lou Gehrig's disease) in 1998. A celebration of his life was held on Saturday, Feb. 21 at the Flanner and Buchanan Mortuary in Indianapolis, Ind.

He is survived by his loving wife, Teresa Marshall; children: Liza, Vernon (Jean), Carlyle, and Bren Marshall; four grandchildren and a great-granddaughter.

