Neil Anthony Shockman

November 7, 1931 – February 17, 2003

Neil A. Shockman passed away on February 11, 2003 in Coon Rapids, Minnesota at the age of 71. Funeral services were held for him on February 20 at the Trinity Lutheran Church of Lake Johanna in Arden Hills, Minnesota.

Shockman worked for the Sioux Falls Argus Leader in the early 1960s and was a retired 27- year employee of the Minneapolis Star Tribune. He was born and raised in berlin, N.D. He was a 1950 graduate of the North Dakota School for the Deaf (NDSD).

Shockman served as the treasurer of the South Dakota Association of the Deaf from 1959 to 1965.

While working and residing in Sioux Falls, he had also served as the treasurer of the Sioux Falls National Fraternal Society of the Deaf, Division #74 and of the Trinity Lutheran Church for the Deaf.

He will be deeply missed by his loving wife, Margaret, his two sons, two daughters, relatives and friends.

1963-64 Sioux Falls Club for the Deaf Bowling team

L to R: Niel Shockman, Arvin Massey, Nels Seten, Raymond Daugaard, Byron Stitts, Ike Kor, and Dave Carlson

