Sandra K. (Hoyme) Andersen

May 30, 1947 – June 7, 1998

Sandra K. Andersen, 51, a longtime teacher at the South Dakota School for the Deaf, died of cancer on June 7, 1998, at Sioux Valley Hospital in Sioux Falls.

Sandra was born May 30, 1947, in Jasper, Minnesota, to Paul and Esther Hoyme. She graduated from high school in Jasper in 1965 and moved to Sioux Falls that fall. In 1969, she graduated from Augustana College with a teaching degree.

She married Eric Andersen on October 25, 1969, in Jasper.

Sandra taught upper elementary and middle school students at the South Dakota School for the Deaf for 29 years. Many SDSD alumni and staff remember her fondly for her teaching and the school activities they shared with her.

She was a member of Grace Lutheran Church and its Church Circle and served as a 4-H leader.

At the time of her death, survivors included her husband, Eric; her daughter, Maren Andersen of Sioux Falls; her brothers, Jim Hoyme of Arden Hills, Minnesota, and Jan Hoyme of Boulder, Colorado; and her parents, Paul and Esther Hoyme of Jasper.

Funeral services were held at Grace Lutheran Church on June 10, 1998, with burial at Hills of Rest Cemetery in Sioux Falls.
