Lewis Edward Garrison

December 3, 1870 – October 17, 1915

Lewis Edward Garrison, 44, died on October 17, 1915 at Portland, Oregon. He and his brother, Harry, were the ones of first deaf pupils at Dakota Territorial School for the Deaf and Mute which currently known as S.D. School for the Deaf.

Lewis was born at St. Joseph County, Michigan on December 3, 1870 to George and Elizabeth Garrison. His family moved to Farmington, at Hanson County in South Dakota and attended School for the Deaf and Mute in Sioux Falls, SD.

After he left School for the Deaf, he resided at Denver, Colorado as painter. No record on his marriage and obituary yet.

